WHITMAN A CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR

District Attorney Announces
That He Will Seek Republican Nomination.

New York, June 1.—District Attorney Charles S. Whitman of New York tonight announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for governor.

"I expect to be a candidate for the nomination for governor in the Republican primaries," he said.

It was learned also that a movement had been launched with the design of procuring Mr. Whitman's nomination on both the Republican and Progressive tickets.

For this purpose it is planned to hold a non-partisan mass meeting in Syracuse in the last week of July to name a ticket headed by Mr. Whitman and seconded by him in sympathy with the district attorneys views for presentation at both the Republican and Progressive primaries.

The movement has been inaugurated without the knowledge of many Progressive leaders, and in spite of their opposition to any such project.

Mr. Whitman's announcement of his candidacy came when this project was laid before him tonight.

The district attorney dictated a brief statement of his position and added there was not another word he could say. Here is his statement:

"I have nothing to say except that I expect to be a candidate for the nomination for Governor in the Republican primaries, and that I have entered into no deal or arrangement with anybody as to my nomination and that I shall not make any such arrangement to enter into any such deal with anybody."

Some time before he sailed for Spain on Saturday, Colonel Roosevelt was acquainted with the plan for a non-partisan Whitman movement, according to its principal sponsor, Charles H. Duell, Jr., a New York lawyer, who was active in the Progressive campaign of 1912.

Mr. Duell said tonight that Colonel Roosevelt had given him positive assurance that he would support the plan.

The local bankers are planning to give the American Bankers Association a warm welcome upon their arrival at The Wentworth on the 26th.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION

Program for Commencement Completed.—Members of Class and Who are Assigned Parts

Fifty-two young men and women will leave their dear old alma mater, the Portsmouth High School, on Thursday, June 18, and the commencement exercises will be presented in the usual impressive manner.

The seniors are holding daily rehearsals of the two beautiful choruses, "Morning Rumble," by G. A. Viole, and "Nightingale and Rose," by Louise M. Gray and Carl Lehner, and the music is under the supervision of George D. Whittier, music director of the public schools of this city.

Rev. Edward Cummings, pastor of the South Congregational Church of Boston, will deliver the commencement address. The class considers itself highly flattered at procuring the services of so noted a speaker, especially famed for his addresses to young people and student bodies.

The class ode has been accepted, but the composer will not be made public for a few days, until after the music is written by the class musician, Miss Teresa Brooks.

Wilfrid Howitt, president of the class of 1914, will deliver the presentation speech, and Judge Calvin Page, of the High School committee will accept the gift, with appropriate words.

Mr. Charles E. Hodgdon will present the Haven medals, as is his wont, and His Honor, Harry B. Yeaton, will confer the diplomas, and the exercises will be concluded with the singing of the class ode by the graduates.

The program of exercises will include:

Invocation—Pastor to be announced later.

Singing—Morning Rumble.....Viole School.

Presentation of Class Gift—Wilfrid Howitt, president of the Senior class.

Acceptance of Class Gift—Hon. Calvin Page, for the High School committee.

Singing—Nightingale and Rose..... Louise M. Gray and Carl Lehner School.

Address to the Graduates—Rev. Edward Cummings, pastor of the South Congregational church of Boston.

Presentation of Haven Medals—Mr. Charles E. Hodgdon, for the High School committee.

Conferring of Diplomas—His Honor Harry B. Yeaton.

Singing of Class Ode—Class of 1914.

The following is the personnel of the members of the graduating class: Albert Trefethen Adams, Dorothy Bennett Alwood, Olga Edna Beyer, Elizabeth Frances Byrne, Teresa Agnes Brooks, Bertha Alice Chapman, Katherine Frances Cronin, Anna May Crowley, Helen Louise Davis, Helen Frances Day, Dorothy Aldrich Doolittle, Dorothy Elizabeth Dennett, Alice Hilda Griffin, Kate Harvey Green, Frances Mary Leary, Ida Rose Levine, Constance Louise Love, Sarah Margaret McWilliams, Florence Evelyn Moran, Viola Grace Merrill, Martha Robertson Newton, Jane Newton, Madeline Blanche Paul, Teresa Marie Paul, Mary Bridget Domitilla Quirk, Edith Marion Rand, Muriel Reichford, Lena Slesberg, Earl Bruce, Arthur Everett Clapp, William Peter Crowley, Francis Daniel Crowley, Arthur DeCoursey, Louis Dreller, Edward Coyle Ewen, Nelson Wood Fernald, James Augustine Fulham, Frederick Aloysius Griffin, George Stanley Hutchins, Joseph Adrian Harvey, Wilfrid Perley Howitt, Warren Bayford, Simon Katz, David Kiley, Harold Allison Littlefield, Clayton Franklin Mugridge, Edward Joseph Neville, Leonard Pope, Ed. The reception and commencement ball will be held in Freeman's hall on Thursday evening. The arrangements

ROYAL BOARD IS NAMED TO PROBE WRECK

Testimony of Survivors and Crew of Collier Is Already Taken.

Montreal, June 2.—Now that the burst of excitement and grief over the sinking of the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Ireland has partially spent itself, the public generally is settling down to await the result of the government's inquiry to fix the responsibility for the disaster that resulted in the loss of nearly a thousand lives.

A royal commission of three was appointed yesterday to investigate. The three men who will comprise the investigating tribunal are Sir Adolph Routhier, Judge of the court of admiralty of Quebec and the Hon. Esdras Lévesque, chief justice and judge of the admiralty court of New Brunswick, appointed by the Canadian government, and George L. Vaux of the legal staff of the British board of trade. Mr. Vaux sailed from England to be present at the hearings, which will begin June 9.

Pending the convening of the commission of inquiry, Captain Lindsey of the Dominion Wreck Commission will continue the preliminary investigation begun today by taking testimony of survivors of the disaster and members of the crew of the collier Stordal and assembling evidence for the use of the commissioners.

The second step in the legal battle arising out of the sinking of the Empress of Ireland will be taken tomorrow when, attorneys for the owners of the Stordal will appear in the admiralty division of the Exchequer court and offer a bond of $24,000 and as that the collier be released from arrest.

The depositing of the bond will be no wise an acknowledgment of responsibility by the owners of the Stordal for the disaster. It simply will be a formally usually followed in such cases.

Until the arrival of Mr. Vaux a decision as to whether the inquiry is to be held in Quebec or Montreal will not be made. It is probable that a representative of the British Admiralty will make the fourth member of the commission.

REBELS DEFY MEDIATORS

In Semi Official Statement Carranza Asks Who Will Force Rebels to Agree

El Paso, Texas, June 1.—A semi-official statement from General Carranza's headquarters at Durango reflecting the actions of the A. B. C. mediators at Niagara Falls and an announcement from General Villa reiterating his allegiance as a military leader to Carranza, were the developments today of the Mexican situation here.

Villa arrived at Chihuahua City from Torreon on his way for a visit to Juarez. Carranza was reported as having begun preparations to move by way of Torreon to Saltillo, where he will perfect his provisional government.

The statement from Durango where Carranza's provisional government was established several days ago, was addressed to the press of the United States with a note to the effect that it had official sanction, although it was not a formal declaration. The telegram in English arrived here over the National Telegraph wires. A copy follows:

"The dominant sentiment of the constitutionalists regarding the proceedings of the mediation commission at Niagara Falls is one of astonishment that there should be such an apparent lack of understanding on the part of that body not only with regard to conditions in Mexico but as to the attitude of the constitutionalists regarding the mediators. This lack of understanding is not confined to the commissioners themselves, but seems to be shared by a large proportion of the American press as well as the Washington government.

"Judging from what has been published from day to day, to mediators appear to consider General Carranza and his followers as a negligible quantity, scarcely worthy of attention, and who perforce must agree to whatever conclusion the commission may reach.

"They do not seem to be aware of the fact that the Constitutionalists are conquerors, and they have inaugurated and carried almost to successful completion a revolution and that this means the establishment of a government entitled to recognition by the rest of the world. The recent successes of the constitutionalist army and others that are imminent, are conclusive proof that the powers of Huerta are practically ended. His troops will not fight; they either run away or join their opponents with every sign of willingness.

"All that prevents the Constitutionalists from entering Mexico City today is the physical obstacle of the destruction of the railroads. With communication restored, which is being accomplished with rapidity, the army would be in Mexico City in less than a week. Yet the Constitutionalists leaders point to the deliberations of the commission and the statements of the press as absolutely ignoring this situation.

"The peace commission even goes so far as to propose that the Constitutionalists must recognize whatever provisional government they decide to set up and declare that they must be forced to recognize the government or be crushed.

"The Constitutionalists leaders are wondering how they are to be forced to do this in view of their present accomplishments and by whom they are to be crushed if they decline to obey the commission.

"Calmly, too, the commission proposes that Huerta, shall be permitted to be a candidate for the presidency in order merely to save his face. Do they think the Constitutionalists will consent to that any more than they will consent to recognize a provisional government constituted as the commission proposes, of one person selected by Huerta, one by themselves and one perhaps but not at all likely, by the Constitutionalists.

"No one, the Constitutionalists leaders point out, who has had any acquaintance with the objects and purpose of their movements, would fancy for a single moment that they would ever consent, that they would have anything whatever to do with any one friendly to or heretofore connected with Huerta.

"The Constitutionalists make it plain beyond question that they will recognize a government established under the plan of Guarratoupe at the

NEW YORK YARD MAY BUILD ONE BATTLE SHIP

Senate Votes to Construct New Dreadnought There—Approves War Ship Sale.

Washington, D. C., June 1.—One of the two new battleships for which Congress is appropriating money this year will be constructed at the New York navy yard if the House accepts an amendment the Senate today added to the naval appropriation bill. Senator O'Gorman, of New York, after a vigorous contest, defeated the Senate naval affairs committee amendment by a vote of 40 to 15. Those voting with the committee and against the New York navy yard were Senators Bryan, Chilton, Lewis, Martin, Overman, Shively, Simmons, Stone, Swanson, Thornton, Tillman, West and White, democrats, and Lodge and Oliver, republicans.

The provision carrying $200,000 for additional equipment, which would have been necessary to construct the new battleship at the Norfolk navy yard, was defeated, 44 to 12.

Authority for the secretary of the navy to sell the battleships Idaho and Mississippi to a foreign government was given in an amendment put on the bill. Greece is seeking to buy these battleships, which are vessels of 13,000 tons register, laid down in 1908.

Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, in supporting the amendment, said an offer had been made for the ships. It would be advantageous to the United States navy to sell them, he said, for what they cost and invest the proceeds in a new 10,000 ton dreadnought ship—No. 30; now building.

Senator Thomas, of Colorado, a "little navy" advocate, said that probably by 1919 this government would be building 50,000 ton and 60,000 ton battleships.

"Vessels of larger and larger size seem inevitable in this mad race for naval armaments, which is going to bankrupt the nations of the earth if not checked," said Senator Thomas.

"The tendency may be the other way, and we may be buying these ships back," suggested Senator Lane, of Oregon.

"Not while there is an armor plate trust to encourage the building of more," retorted Senator Thomas.

Mr. Daniels was authorized to name twenty-five enlisted men annually to Annals, provided they are under twenty years of age. An originally presented the age limit was twenty-two, and the amendment went out on a point of order made by Senator Weeks, of Massachusetts.

An amendment to establish a government armor plate factory was blocked by Senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire, in the absence of Senator Oliver, of Pennsylvania, who is opposed to such an amendment.

COAL COMPANY DEFEAT THE BUTTON MAKERS

Fast Game and Pitchers Battle With Pilgrim Getting Best Support.

The Consolidation Coal Company defeated the Morley Button in a fast game in the third week of the Sunset League schedule Monday evening.

It was a pitcher's battle with Pilgrim getting the better support. Delell pitched a great game allowing only two hits and he was steady as a clock, and did not issue a pass. He found Able and McDonald with off nights and Moran made a costly mistake of Dowdell's fly in the fifth after Pilgrim and Humphrey had got on by errors of Able and McDonald and it netted two runs. The Consolidation got their first run in the third, when Pilgrim was safe on Able's allowing his grounder to get through him and a poor throw by Pruett allowed him to get to third, from where he easily scored on Bruce single. The Morley got two men on in the first and third but hits were lacking to score.

Howard and McCabe made some fine catches in the outfield. Pilgrim got fine support, Bailey catching a fine game and his infield were fast. Estabrook and Bruce pulling off one double.

The Game in Detail

FIRST INNING

With the Coal Co. at bat, Bruce struck out. Dowdell singled. Estabrook bunted to Driscoll who threw to first nailing Dowdell in a slow double play. No runs.

Able walked. McDonald struck out. Huntman singled. Paul fanned. Huntman stole second. Howard knocked a high fly to Dowdell. No runs.

SECOND INNING

Cragen filed to Moran, who made a fine catch. Remick grounded and was thrown out. McDonald to Paul. Bailey struck out. No runs.

Pruett struck out. Moran singled. McCabe struck out. Bailey threw to second to nail Moran but Bruce fumbled and Moran was safe. Driscoll grounded to Pilgrim. No runs.

THIRD INNING

Smart was out on a grounder to McDonald. Pilgrim hit to Able who let the ball through him. Humphrey struck out. Pilgrim stole second, and reached third on Pruett's short throw. Bruce singled and Pilgrim scored. Dowdell filed out to McCabe. One run. Able secured a pass. McDonald sacrificed him to second. Huntman walked. Paul hit a high foul fly which Pilgrim got almost in the bleachers. Able was caught off third. Bailey to Cragen, in a close decision. No runs.

FOURTH INNING

Estabrook filed to Howard and Cragen followed suit. Howard making two good catches. Remick hit to McDonald who fumbled. Bailey retired the side on a grounder to Driscoll. No runs.

Howard singled. Pruett hit to Cragen who fumbled. Moran filed out to Bruce who threw to Estabrook, doubling Howard at second. McCabe grounded to Remick. No runs.

FIFTH INNING

Smart hit to McDonald and was out at first. Pilgrim hit to McDonald and he fumbled. Able fumbled Humphrey's grounder. Bruce hit to Huntman and was retired at first. Dowdell got first when Moran muffed his fly and Pilgrim and Humphrey scored. Cragen started to run for Dowdell, but was caught napping off first. Pruett to Paul. Two runs.

Driscoll fanned. Able fouled to Bailey and McDonald hit a slow grounder to Bruce and was thrown out at first. No runs.

Johnson, Greatest Pitcher, Could Get $100,000 From the Federals

Walter Johnson, the stellar pitcher of the Washington American League team has got back into his best form—and you know what that means. In other words he is mowing down opposing batsmen with deadly monotony. It is said that the Federal league would pay Johnson $100,000 for a three year contract if he would jump.

JUNGLE BRED ANIMALS REQUIRE CONSTANT WATCHING

In the group of Marguerite's Nubian Lions that are to visit our city on Wednesday, June 10, with La Tena's Big Three Ring Animal Circus, is a male lion that has in a few years made nearly a dozen attempts to escape and being jungle bred, the noble captive seems to think that some day he will make good his get-away, despite the steel bars and the vigilance of his keepers. He goes through his part of the performance with apparent liking for it, but his ever watchful eyes are constantly on his mistress and he invariably keeps them on the entrance to his cage, seeming to hope that some day he will again get out and be free. This den of trained beasts is only one of the many big features with the circus and among others may be mentioned the circus's remarkably clever bears, Captain Wesley's educated seals, Paul Allen's highly-trained elephants, and Sylvester's dancing ponies and among the many performances on bareback stunts is the startling novelty presented by Blanche Reed and Herman Griggs, and the Albert Powell troupe of distinguished high wire artists, five in number, deserve special mention. Over a hundred remarkably clever performers take part in the varied program offered and stamp it as the best show that La Tena has ever offered to the American public. Many specimens of rare, wild animals will be found on exhibition in the splendidly arranged menagerie, and courteous attendants will gladly explain the various families. Every morning there will be a brilliant parade of highly decorated chariots and dens of animals, making up a cavalcade seldom seen, and with all of its cages wide open, clearly proving the worth of the aggregation and proclaiming it "different from all the rest."

MI-LADY'S FACE POWDERS

A problem of great interest to many women as the summer months come on. There are as many kinds and varieties of these needed complexion helps as there are sands in the sea. What may be just right for one complexion may be wrong for another. Many of the leading dealers in Toilet Articles are advertisers in The Herald. We invite our readers to consult with them. Perhaps the choice of the right face powder is a small matter—but we cite it as one of thousands of instances in which advertising is helpful.

Those Mexican Prisoners Are The Limit

BY HOE

FLETCHER MAY GET THE FLEET COMMAND

It was learned that Mr. Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, has almost definitely decided to name Rear Admiral Frank P. Fletcher as commander in chief of the Atlantic fleet to succeed Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger who will end his present duty at the head of the fleet on July 3. Three officers of the grade of rear admiral have figured most conspicuously in the race for this commission. Rear Admiral Bradley A. Fiske, aide for operations, Cameron McR. Winslow, commanding the special service squad run in Mexican waters, and Rear Admiral Fletcher, who was retained in command there of Mexican waters until the arrival there of Rear Admiral Badger with the Atlantic fleet. Six months ago Rear Admiral Fletcher had hardly a chance in this contest. As commander of the first division of the Atlantic fleet he had little opportunity to prove his worth until he was ordered with his division to Mexican waters. His service there was so conspicuous that he has in a few months outdistanced his fellow officers and obtained for himself almost beyond question the most desirable commission at sea in the navy.

EXETER DEFEATED ANDOVER IN THE ANNUAL DEBATE

Exeter defeated Andover in the Monday evening. The subject was: "Resolved, the Political Independence at the academy chapel in Exeter on should be granted to the inhabitants of the Philippine Island, within ten years." The Exeter team which had the affirmative put up a splendid argument, and the members of the team were both eloquent and earnest in their opinion that it was due our little brown brothers.

The Exeter team was Lawrence Dennis of Washington, Lucius Ellsworth Thayer of this city and Howard W. Root of Roanoke, West Va. It will be noted that young Thayer is the only New Englander on the team, out of a school of five hundred scholars. He was at first chosen as an all-arounder, but his work was so good that he was made one of the principals, and last evening his convincing argument contributed greatly to his school's eighth victory over Andover.

The Andover team were George S. Haskell, Scituate, Pa., Elliott Spicer, Englewood, N. J., and Francis W. Getty, Winchester.

The judges were: President E. T. Fairchild, New Hampshire College; Judge A. P. Stone, Harvard University; and Hon. Robert L. Manning, Manchester.

NAVY'S WIRELESS NOW REACHES ALL STATIONS

Washington, June 1.—Captain W. H. G. Bullard, U. S. N., who is in charge of the naval radio service, and who has his headquarters at the naval wireless station at Arlington, Va., seven miles from Washington, has just presented to the Naval Institute an interesting review of the development of naval wireless telegraphy. Today practically every vessel in the United States Navy is equipped with apparatus for aerial communication, and it is so successfully operated that there is scarcely a point in the seven seas at which the larger battleships would be out of touch, through relay, with the three great masts towering over Captain Bullard's headquarters at Arlington. Some of the later extensions of the station on the ground of the American Legation at Peking, China, for communication between officials of the United States Legation and vessels of the Asiatic fleet and the Panama Canal Station. The latter is to be unusually powerful, with three 600-foot steel towers for the support of the antennae. It is erected halfway across the isthmus near San Pablo. The name given to it, Duran, is the name of one of the early explorers of that region.

The Mexican trouble led to further extensions to take the place of interrupted land lines and for exchanges with the ships. Isabel, Texas, near the mouth of the Rio Grande, was chosen as the central point of operation on the Atlantic side, and San Diego on the Pacific side. There are now forty-eight naval shore stations, those at outside points being three along the Panama Canal, one at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, one at San Juan, Porto Rico; seven in Alaska and outlying islands, two in the Philippines, one each at Hawaii, Guam, and Peking, China, with other projected stations in Samoa and elsewhere rapidly nearing completion.

The chief work of the naval stations is to keep the Navy Department in connection with its ships at sea either by direct or relayed messages. This service extends to all humans, officers and divisions of the Navy Department those in command of navy yards and stations, and to officers of fleets, divisions and ships. The transmission of time signals has also developed to great importance for war and merchant ships to avoid error in the ship's chronometer, etc. Signals from Arlington are sent out every day in the year twice a day, at noon and at 10 p.m., meridian time. Time signals are now sent out on the Atlantic coast only through the radio stations at Arlington, Key West and New Orleans. On the Pacific coast the time signals are sent to sea through the wireless stations at Mare Island, Bureau and San Diego in California and at North Bend, Wash.

The daily weather reports and storm warnings are sent from Arlington and Key West a few minutes after the ten o'clock time signal at night but important storm warnings are sent whenever necessary. Warnings of icebergs and derelicts are sent to sea from the Arlington station, following the time signals and weather reports. At such times ships are listening on the long wave of Arlington, 2500 meters, and their receiving circuits are tuned to receive the ice or derelict report. Incoming ships are compelled under the London Safety Convention to report information concerning ice and derelicts. This goes through the Hydrographic Office to the Arlington station and then seaward and to other stations.

This information being of an urgent character—icebergs, derelicts, cyclones and typhoons—is sent under a special signal called the safety signal, repeated at short intervals ten times at full power (T T T). On receiving this all radio stations are required to keep silent, in order to let the danger warning go broadcast. More recent developments of the naval wireless work are the fog signals and direction finders, by which the dangers attending fog are overcome and the location and direction of ships in reference to shore stations are established; also a rapid development of commercial work by which the general public and the press are allowed to use the wireless equipment aboard warships, and at shore stations on payment of land and sea charges. These charges are regulated under the London Convention and the amounts collected by naval coast or ship stations are turned into the treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

N.H. COLLEGE PROFESSOR HONORED.

New Hampshire College, Durham, N. H., June 1.—Prof. Fred Rasmussen, head of the dairy department of New Hampshire College, has just been elected to the honorary scientific society Phi Kappa Phi by the chapter of that organization at Iowa State College.

Professor Rasmussen was a graduate at Iowa State in the class of 1905 and is one of the three alumni members of that class elected to membership. The society has as its aim the fostering of a spirit of scholarly investigation and election to it is considered a signal honor.

One of the regents of the society is Prof. J. A. Ford, of the Massachusetts

Agri-cultural College. Professor Ford is an alumnus of New Hampshire College and recently made the address to the graduates of the two-year course in agriculture here.

The editorial staff of The New Hampshire, the undergraduate weekly publication of New Hampshire College, elected officers this afternoon for next year and named R. E. Caine, of the class of 1915, of Rochester, as editor in chief. W. J. Nelson, of the class of 1914, of Manchester, was elected managing editor and Roy Graham, of the class of 1917, of Candia, was elected business manager. The officers will take charge of the paper at the opening of the next college year.

Prof. O. C. Smith, of the department of economics, who has been in charge of an informal employment agency for New Hampshire College graduates, announces that P. T. Sellers of Franklin, has been appointed teacher of history at Colebrook Academy, and Russell Garland of Manchester, has been appointed teacher of manual training at the same place. Another member of the graduating class who will teach next year is H. W. Sanborn of Litchfield, who has been engaged to take charge of the work in agriculture at Colby Academy.

WORK STARTED OILING ROADS

The big oil auto tank used in oiling roads arrived Monday morning, and the work of oiling Lafayette and Greenland Roads has been started. The heavy travel on Saturday and Sunday cut up Lafayette road some but a road scraper will put it back in shape for the oil.

All of the roads outside the city will be oiled, but how much will be done in the city depends on the amount used on roads. The general feeling among the property owners is that the city should be liberal with the oil about the city, especially outside the street sprinkling district, and no extra appropriation could be made by the Council which would meet with so much approval as one for oil.

ARMY'S FINE HEALTH RECORD

Washington, June 1.—Concerning sanitary conditions at Vera Cruz, Sec. of War Garrison today said:

"The United States army has completed one month's occupancy of Vera Cruz. There have been ashore more than seven thousand soldiers and marines and not one death from disease has occurred within that period."

Oh, you old jimmy pipe!

"Lead me to it" say men in all walks of life, since they've found out that Prince Albert tobacco can't bite the tongue and can't parch the throat.

"Lead me to it" you'll say just as quick as you invest in a tidy red tin and find out first-hand just how good P. A. is as a pipe or cigarette tobacco!

PRINCE ALBERT
the national joy smoke

brought thousands and thousands of old jimmy pipes out of the garrets. It has revolutionized pipe and cigarette smoking!

That's because Prince Albert is made by a patented process that cuts out the "grouch" and just lets in the sunshine! Never in your life have you hit such flavor and fragrance and freshness!

Play P. A. in a jimmy pipe or roll up the corkingest makin's cigarette you ever put fire to. It's all one and the same thing—just good for what ails your smokappetite! And it rolls up so dead easy. Being mighty fresh, it just stays put and doesn't blow away or run away like the dust-brands.

And, you know, today's the day!

Buy Prince Albert everywhere. Tippy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c; also handsome pound and half-pound tins.

Two Senators on the Tolls Question.

Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire, foremost champion of the American merchant marine in Congress, and Senator Burton of Ohio, its bitterest enemy, spoke on the same day in the debate over the Panama Canal tolls. Their arguments, of course, are strikingly different. Mr. Burton devoted his speech to a summary of the legal-technical arguments against exempting American ships—issues on which Taft, Knox, Olney and a host of great interpreters of law are utterly at variance with him. But Senator Gallinger, while adequately reviewing the legal aspects of the case, devoted much thought to the maritime aspects, citing particularly the practice at Suez of other governments, which directly or indirectly through subsidy provide for the payment of the tolls of their principal steamship lines. This is a most important phase of the subject, which supporters of repeal endeavor to ignore. Senator Gallinger pointed out clearly and impressively the practice of our maritime competitors at Suez, and predicted that they would soon be following the same policy at Panama.

The New Hampshire Senator further exposed the falsity of the statement that exemption from tolls at Panama would be a subsidy to a monopoly or trust. He referred to the often misinterpreted House report, which applies only to "regular line services," including only one-eighth of the coastwise fleet, seven-eighths of which is independent and competitive. Senator Gallinger took up the contention that the National Administration is against subsidies, and reminded the Senate that President Wilson's party had from time to time been against other ideas or policies which the whole nation now favors and enforces. "I can easily show you," said the Senator, "over $25,000,000 worth of church property right here in Washington that pays the Government no taxes, and surely that is as much a contribution to a class as any subsidy ever suggested for American shipping would be. If the theory we are asked to commit ourselves to holds good, to be consistent we should have a tollgate at Cape Henry, another at Sandy Hook and at least two at New Orleans."

In point of vigor, information and authority the speech of Senator Gallinger is the strongest that has been made on the American side. Almost coincidentally with the deliverance of the address, Senator Gallinger announced that he was a candidate for renomination and re-election to the Senate for another six-year term. His success is practically assured. It is a significant fact that the outspoken champion of American shipping remains in public life when its most outspoken enemy, Senator Burton, is retiring.—From Marine Journal.

Politics Not Responsible.

Thomas A. Edison says that from private reports from agents and dealers all over the United States he is convinced that general business is not good, but admits that he can see no immediate cause for such a condition. He says that in analyzing business conditions the number of men employed and the number out of employment must be taken into account, and that the percentage of men at work now is lower than it has been before in some years.

In the absence of any other known cause Mr. Edison is convinced that the trouble with business at the present time is too much politics. But is there any more politics than there was when the country was booming? It will have to be admitted that there is not. Politics, like the poor that the Bible speaks of, we always have with us in this country, and yet as a rule the country has been very prosperous. It is not at such a standstill now as some are trying to imagine. There is nothing resembling a boom, and that in itself is no calamity. Booms are enjoyed while they last, but there is the inevitable reaction, and as between booms and reactions the people are not so well off as they would be with business running along more nearly on the level.

But in this country that sort of thing seems to have largely gone by. The people are not satisfied with normal business, but persist in crowding and pushing it until, like the overcrowded race horse, it goes "off its feet." Then follows a period of compulsory slackening, with complaint that the "administration" is responsible, when the real trouble is a neglect of the law of supply and demand. When any agricultural product is especially large the price comes down and consumers get the benefit, and for this reason many think the farmers should increase their production to such an extent that produce would be cheap at all times.

Manufacturers are not willing to pursue such a course. If they were there would be no slack times, but goods would be cheaper than they are. But when the markets are well stocked the working time is shortened or the mills shut down, and we have dull times until demand and supply become balanced again. That is about all there is to it. The trouble is not due to politics so much as to the American habit of overdoing business when it is good, thereby killing the goose that lays the golden eggs.

New York's state executioner is ill, but in his days of invalidism he will have the consolation of the thought that, if his usefulness is ended, he has a record of 180 persons "put across" since he assumed his grewsome office.

Empress of Ireland; Canadian Pacific Steamship That Sank In St. Lawrence River, and Captain Kendall.

Photos copyright, 1914, by American Press Association.

The collision of the Empress of Ireland, a Canadian Pacific steamship, with a collier in the St. Lawrence river about thirty miles from Father Point was followed by heroic rescues in lifeboats. Despite this the nation was shocked by the report that over 800 of the 1,200 passengers and crew had been lost. The steamer had sailed from Quebec for England with a heavy passenger list and collided in the fog with the collier Storsdad. Captain Kendall of the ill-fated steamer, shown here with the Empress of Ireland, was rescued.

TRIBUTE BY HER SON.

"These lines are part of a poem 'Ad Matrem,' written several years ago by Percy Stickney Grant, rector of the Church of the Ascension in New York City, as a tribute of love to his mother, who was a native of Portsmouth and who died May 27, 1914:

All worships change, save that a son can give;
 Though altars perish, motherhood will live.

A slinger thou, my mother, whose soul's song
 Enchants the hearts that hear.

No verse can fitly phrase
 The rhythm of thy days;
 Sweet rhyme has not thy cheer.

Euterpe, dear to thee, is not so strong;
 Daughters of Puritans, like them as stern.

To champion right, to fight the wrong,
 From the high path thou wilt not turn,
 But look askance at tripping pleasure.

As though her merry dance
 Could turn thy heavenly glance
 From misery's full measure.

And thou forget thy errand of deliverance;
 Thou fleest her caress,
 Pleasure to thee is selfishness.

Yet nestling in thy strength lies ever
 Like a reflection in a river
 Sweet as rubies underneath the snow.

Thy second self, a queen in fairy show,
 Thou livest in rich thought,
 That comes to thee unthought.

The unsold splendor of a summer day,
 The common world for thee
 Is hung in jubilee;

Each with his best adorns thy royal way.

O how can love its vision realize!
 For near thee I would ever dwell,
 But separation, sin and self arise
 To hide thee from mine eyes.

I say "Farewell!"
 My heart foreboding falters
 To take my leave of thee and happiness.

Till love, my life, its service strangely alters
 And slays me by its own excess.
 But no! I see a larger plan.
 Sweet love need not lament in barren days.

When hands touch not, nor fond eyes
 Can
 The form it broods always
 But cannot greet.

Where love exists all love is in relation.
 So in Christ's love and loving ministry
 Thou art exalted in my exaltation;
 Soul touching soul I walk with thee
 Alone along the crude mill-village street.

Thou art not absent, nor I desolate,
 When I in this great love participate.

Thou reconcilest me to things divine
 And lead by love where feet are loath
 To tread;

Alluring as a rainbow draws a child,
 Who, breathless, runs to grasp it, but Beguiled

By its alluring beauty, still is led
 On, on, in ardent quest where heaven
 And earth entwined.

Yes, farther still. As far
 As flames the last, swift star
 Upon the brink of being thou shalt lead.

If those orbs cease to roll
 And all is void but soul

In that new world, my life thy light will need.
 Bright eyes and merry ways attract a boy.

And youth in these too often seeks its joy;
 But manhood looking nearer
 The awful spirit sees.

Then, with a vision clearer
 Mere flesh ceases to please
 And in the face
 It seeks heaven's grace.

Sweet face, sweet mother, I can see
 Today the world's maturity;
 The gods forlorn,
 The Lord Christ born,

That man might rise by thy love's regency.

IN MEMORIAM.

The many friends of Fred C. Tucker, formerly of Kittery Junction, were shocked by the news of his sudden death, which occurred at Macon, Ga., last Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Tucker had not been feeling well for two weeks, but his condition did not become serious until Saturday. In spite of the best medical aid that could be obtained, he passed away in a few hours after reaching the Macon hospital, the cause of his illness and death being uræmic poisoning.

Although far away from his former home and relatives, the loving hands of a host of friends that he had made during his residence of fifteen years in Macon, ministered tenderly to his needs and did everything in human power to restore him to health.

Services were held from the First Presbyterian church at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. H. E. Douglas, who was an intimate friend of the deceased. Nearly two hundred of the employees of the Macon, Dublin and Savannah Railroad at-

NEIGHBORLY ADVICE

Freely Given by a Portsmouth Citizen

When one has suffered tortures from a bad back and found relief from the aches and pains that person's advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following neighborly advice comes from a Portsmouth resident.

Clinton R. Hurd, 335 Hill street, Portsmouth, N. H., says: "Three years ago I had an attack of kidney complaint and suffered terribly from backache. It was almost impossible for me to do any work when the trouble was at its height and I always felt tired. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Philbrick's Drug Store, relieved me and removed all the troubles caused by my kidneys. During the time that has since elapsed I have been asked scores of times about Doan's Kidney Pills and I have always been pleased to tell of the great benefit I had from them. I cannot praise Doan's Kidney Pills too highly."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Hurd had—the remedy backed by home testimony. See at all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

"When your back is lame—Remember the name."

tended the services, marching to the church in a body. During the service, a loving tribute to his memory was read which was written by Mr. J. T. Wright, vice president and general manager of the M. D. & S. R. R.

At 5 o'clock the body left the station at Macon for the journey "home," surrounded by a profusion of beautiful floral emblems, and attended by Mr. N. H. Rahn, commercial agent of the M. D. & S. R. R., and a very dear friend of the deceased. The body was met at New York by Mr. Newton Hurd, brother-in-law, and in Boston by Mr. Charles Tucker, an uncle, who with his sister, Mrs. Newton Hurd, accompanied the body to Portsmouth, where it was met by other relatives and friends on the arrival of the 5.23 train, Friday afternoon. The procession then proceeded to Harmony Grove cemetery, where prayer was offered by Rev. Alanson J. Hayes, pastor of the Second M. D. church, Kittery.

As the evening sun descended, the casket was lowered to its last resting place and sorrowing relatives and friends who came to pay their last tribute of respect to one whom they had loved so dearly vented their way home, leaving "Fred" quietly sleeping by the side of his beloved father and mother.

"We know not what it is, dear,
 This sleep so deep and still;
 The folded hands, the awful calm,
 The cheek so pale and chill.

"Nothing is known, but I believe
 That God is overhead;
 And as life is to the living,
 So death is to the dead."

Frederick Clifford Tucker was born at Kittery, Maine, May 24, 1873, the son of Charles Henry and Frances Keen Tucker. He attended the elementary schools of his native town, also the Kittery high school and the academy at South Berwick, where he was a member of the base ball team.

Later he studied telegraphy and for several years was telegraph operator and station agent at York Harbor.

In 1895 Mr. Tucker left York for Macon, Georgia, taking the position of dispatcher for the Macon, Dublin and Savannah railroad. Later he was promoted to agent, then to trainmaster.

In 1910 he was made superintendent of transportation. In 1907 and 1908 he found time to attend the law school of Mercer University, and upon graduation was admitted to the Georgia bar. Mr. Tucker was a member of the Mercer Chapter, S. A. E. Fraternity, and very active in its work. For several years he was president of the Southern Association of Car Service Officers.

By his genial disposition and generosity he made a host of friends wherever he lived. He was regarded as a highly efficient railroad man, and was popular in railroad and business circles of Macon.

The sincere sympathy of his many, many friends in Kittery, York and in his home city in the South is extended to his sister, Mrs. Newton Hurd, and other relatives, who are left to grieve over his untimely death.

CURRENT OPINION

Acceptance of Mediation by United States Splendid Exhibition of Diplomatic Generosity.

The acceptance by this great and powerful country of the offer of mediation tendered by our sister republics in South America when we have the weak, distracted and war torn Mexican nation practically under our heel is one of the most magnanimous exhibitions of diplomatic generosity the world has ever seen.

No one doubts that we could crush Mexico like an eggshell if we saw fit so to do. The strong can afford to be generous. The acceptance of mediation will tend to avert a one sided war and redounds to the glory and generosity of a great, just and peace loving nation.

It marks in history the beginning of the end of war, the commencement of disarmament and the inauguration of arbitration among the nations of the earth.—By Governor Edward F. Dunne of Illinois.

WALSH WANTS BAY STATE TO BUY RAILROAD

Calls for Referendum on Public Ownership in Special Message.

Boston, June 1.—A recommendation that the voters decide whether the state could purchase the stock of the Boston and Maine railroad, now held by the Boston Holding company for the New Haven railroad company, was made by Governor Walsh in a message to the legislature today.

The governor submitted to the legislature an agreement between the federal authorities and the New Haven railroad, providing for the separation of the Boston and Maine and the New Haven systems.

"The agreement" the message says, provides for the appointment of five representative men called liquidators to whom shall be transferred the stock in the Boston railroad Holding company now held by the New Haven and whose duty it shall be to liquidate or sell the stock of the Boston and Maine railroad held by the Boston Railroad Holding company.

"Those liquidators are obliged under the agreement within two and one half years to sell the stock of the Boston and Maine now owned by the Boston Railroad Holding Company to such persons as they deem proper, provided that such shares shall not be offered to the stockholders of the New Haven Company as a class, nor be sold to the New Haven company either directly or indirectly to be held in its interest or so as to re-establish in any manner the combination and control which it is the purpose of this agreement to terminate."

The senate referred the governor's message to the committee on railroads. Subsequently Senator Hill of Framingham filed two bills aimed at accomplishing legislation to assist the dissolution plans.

One bill would authorize the New Haven to transfer its stock in the Boston Railroad Holding Company and would authorize the Holding company to sell the stock and securities of the Boston and Maine now held by it. Under this bill the commonwealth could at any time by act of the legislature, take or acquire, all or any part of this Boston and Maine stock or stock of the Boston Holding company.

The second bill would authorize the New Haven to sell its stock in the Berkshire Street Railway company and would relieve it from the obligations incurred under the so-called "Berkshire Trolley act" of 1910. Under this bill the New Haven could sell the trolley stock without consent of the public service commission.

INJUNCTION ON AUTOMOBILE

Dover Police Commissioners Are Restrained From Using Their New Pet.

Another chapter was added to the Dover police muddle caused by the commissioners purchasing an automobile ambulance, on Monday when Deputy Sheriff Fred A. Goodwin presented official legal notices of injunction against the members of the police commission, Alvan P. Place, Edward McGinness and Fred D. McKone as well as Chief Clark and his various agents, restraining them from further use of the new police ambulance funds to pay for the same or the use of the city's funds in operating or maintaining the motor ambulance from this date until September 1 unless the order issued was dissolved or modified. Each was also given official notice to appear before the September term of superior court and answer to the bill of complaint as outlined by Mayor Ross.

This action practically means the suspension of the ambulance which has been in use in this city during the last few days. In the complaint issued by Mayor Ross he alleges that the parties involved have taken and intend to continue to take certain money belonging to and which is a part of the funds and property of the city of Dover to pay for the machine and other matters of expense which may be involved in the operation and maintenance of the machine, and he further complains that their acts are illegal, unauthorized and an arbitrary use of the funds and money of the city of Dover. In stating his objections Mayor Ross concludes the legal document which was served in the following manner:

"Therefore your petitioner prays that the said parties, their agents and servants, be restrained and that an injunction be issued restraining the said parties, their agents or servants from using and expending any part of the money appropriated by the said city for the payment of, or the maintenance and operation of said machine and for such relief as may be just and equitable."

BASE BALL NOTES

Young Driscoll surprised himself by not losing a pass. And he only allowed two little singles. The Hutton factory outfield surely deserves much credit, they making some fine catches when a muff would have been costly.

Tommy (Miglin) is showing his usual base stealing ability. It was a pretty fast game at that, 55 minutes. Such games as this are one of great credit to the league. Bruce and Esterbrook secured a pretty double play. These two usually succeed in worrying the man running on second, as they work together finely. Bruce made a fine stop of one of Bailey's high throws in the second. Bailey played the game through with plenty of snap and without error. We notice that "Hitchie" Cragen can run bases some even if he is pretty stocky. Hutton is a man the fans like to watch at the bat. A regular Speaker swing!

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a Glass of Salts if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers, Meat Forms Uric Acid.

If you must have your meat every day eat it but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that uric acid forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken then you suffer from a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or side headache, dizziness, your stomach soars, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize the irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer irritates thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink.

HORSE TRAMPLES THREE CHILDREN

Two Dover Boys and Girl in Serious Condition After Runaway.

As the result of a runaway accident in Dover on Monday, two children of Mr. and Mrs. Jenn Ellis, a boy and a girl as well as the boy of John Gaffney, all under five years of age are in a critical condition. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis is not expected to recover, the physician stating that the child has been severely injured internally.

It appears that the children were playing close to the side of the main thoroughfare when the horse attached to a milk wagon became frightened and plunged into them before they had an opportunity to reach a place of safety. In addition to being struck by the hoofs of the animal, it is also stated that the wagon passed over each child.

The children were unconscious when picked up and were taken to their homes on Winter street and medical attendance was summoned.

In all cases several bones have been broken and complications may result in the death of at least two of the children.

The horse and wagon were the property of Dayton Sterling and the police officials have been advised that this is the third time the horse has become unmanageable within many weeks. The case is under investigation by the officials.

PRESIDENT MAY INSIST THAT CONSTITUTIONALISTS BE HEARD

Just How Far He Will Press Their Claim Uncertain--Carranza Must Be Recognized if Permanent Results Are to Follow.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 1.—After a two-hour conference between the mediators and the American delegates today the question of admitting the Constitutionalists into the negotiations for the settlement of the Mexican problem was still undecided. It was learned, however, that the desire of the United States to have the Constitutionalists heard before a final agreement is signed here has impressed the three mediators and they are taking a more favorable view of it.

After today's conference, Justice Lamar detailed the following statement:

"We had a conference this morning in which we continued the discussion of a point on which we had not agreed on Saturday. The matter is still under discussion, but we found in our talk this morning that we were not so far apart in our construction of certain phases and we are still quite hopeful."

The mediators have taken the position that they will admit the Constitutionalists if they are ready to discuss internal as well as international phases of the situation. While the last note from Carranza did not make clear his attitude with respect to these points, it was understood that the Washington Government had obtained since then more information about the attitude of the Constitutionalists' chief which had been laid before the mediators.

All parties to the conference agree that a military force that controls an area greater than falls under the domination of all other factions combined must be reckoned with; must have a voice in any settlement of the Mexican problem if permanency is expected. The differences, it appears, relate wholly to methods. General Carranza feels that he should have been in the conference from the first and that he was treated with scant courtesy by the South American envoys when they withdrew their invitation to him to send delegates. The envoys, on the other hand, feel that General Carranza belittled their efforts when he declined to agree to an armistice with General Huerta. There the matter rested until the conference was well under way.

AMERICA URGES CHARGE.

Our Delegates Await Definite Instructions on Point from the President.

Washington, June 1.—Now for the Washington Government might go in urging that the Constitutionalists be given a part in mediation preliminary to the next big move in the Niagara conference. The American delegates were prepared to argue for some form of Constitutional representation and today they awaited definite instructions from President Wilson and Secretary Bryan. The South American envoys virtually arranged to proceed with plans for reconciling differences between Huerta and the United States temporarily ignoring General Carranza. That course might be disturbed, however, by a direct intimation from Washington that it would withhold approval of the programme for a new provisional government unless glances were made of the proposition of Carranza's participation. Administration officials declined to reveal the tenor of their exchanges with the American delegates, but it was believed that their instructions soon would result in a definite understanding over Carranza's status in the conference.

Forces of the northern faction here had been augmented by the arrival of Jose Vasconcelos and Luis Cabrera. Probably Carranza will name them to represent him at Niagara Falls if he receives an invitation. Cabrera was met by Rafael Zubaran, minister of the interior in the Carranza cabinet, and Jose Vasconcelos, a second am-many of the northern Mexican leader. The three were together throughout the day and also were in touch with their legal advisers, through whom they maintained communication with the Washington Government.

While officially uninformed as to what is going on behind the conference doors at the Falls or the names of the Mexicans who are being considered at a proposed provisional government, the Constitutionalists leaders were plainly interested in Felix Diaz, the presidential candidate whose representatives have twice appeared at Niagara Falls and Vasquez Gomez, a prominent Mexican who was an adherent of Madero but who has not added himself with the present Constitutional movement under Carranza. Gomez left Mexico after the expulsion of Huerta to power and has since lived in the United States, though maintaining constant touch with his friends in the Mexican capital. Zubaran, Cabrera and Vasconcelos apparently think Diaz and Gomez may be under consideration by the mediators. They do not favor Diaz, but they speak more favorably of Gomez, who is regarded as in sympathy with the Constitutional movement, although more or less neutral in the present struggle.

A MISSING LAD IS FOUND IN THIS CITY

Reginald G. Leeman, aged 15, who has been missing from his home in Milton since last Saturday was found in this city Monday afternoon by Deputy Marshal Ducker. Young Leeman had rode to this city on his bicycle and his attempting to sell it to W. P. Woods led to his identification and recovery by the police.

As soon as he was taken to the station his family in Milton was notified by telephone and his brother and other friends came here in an automobile after the young man.

He was apparently unconcerned over his flight and is evidently suffering from a nervous break down caused by study. He was glad to see his brother and willingly accompanied them home in the automobile.

Milton, New Hampshire, May 31.—On Sunday searching parties consisting of one hundred residents of Milton scoured the woods in that vicinity and visited farm houses to find Reginald G. Leeman, member of the freshman class of Nute high school, a well known athlete and 15 years-old son of Mrs. Addie Leeman of Main street, Milton. He wandered away from home on an Ivers Johnson bi-

THE WILD WOMEN ARE STILL AT IT

London, June 1.—An "arson squad" of militant suffragettes today destroyed by fire the historic parish church of St. Mary's, Wargrave, three miles from Henley on the Thames. All that remains of the church which was built in 1538, is a portion of the tower and the scorched stone walls. Inside the building was a monument to Thomas Day, author of "Sandford and Merton." Two strange women were seen in the neighborhood early in the morning, and just inside the ruins the firemen found a hammer and a heap of suffrage literature with a paper on which was written "Stop persecuting women."

The only property saved consisted of an ancient register and a few church ornaments. These were rescued by the vicar, Rev. Basil S. Batty who rushed through the flames to get them. The church contained many priceless treasures, including some bells four centuries old, which melted in the flames.

Another fire whose origin is attributed by the authorities to the militant suffragettes, today destroyed a mansion near Windsor which was formerly the residence of the Duchess of Sutherland.

A militant suffragette, evading the watchful officials in St. Paul's Cathedral, mounted the steps of the lectern at the morning service Sunday and hurled the astonished worshippers upon "The Wrongs of Women." The archdeacon had just concluded reading the lesson when a woman ran from her seat to the lectern and, grasping the ironwork, addressed the congregation for upwards of a minute despite the efforts of the ushers to dislodge her. She was finally carried bodily from the cathedral. Other suffragettes then began praying for "martyred women." They also were ejected. There were similar scenes in the Birmingham Cathedral, the women there rising in their seats and shouting "In the name of Christ, stop forcible feeding."

Relief for Pay Inspector Arms.

The Senate committee on claims has favorably reported the bill (S. 8525) for the relief of Pay Inspector T. T. Arms, U. S. Navy, in the sum of $555.20, principally represented by payments made by the pay officer of the U. S. S. Columbia, receiving ship at the navy yard, New York, on account of embezzled moneys paid the commissary officer on account of drafts of men transferred from the U. S. S. Hartford to the Columbia, the men having been given leave by the department, but the pay officer was not notified of this authorized absence by the commanding officer.

PROTECTIONISTS SHOULD WIN

Mayor Bauer, who was a prominent Progressive leader in Indiana during the election of 1912 is now convinced that the Republican party is the hope of the country. "The tariff question," he says, "is the big issue today. There is no reason why we should close our eyes to the truth, we should be poor citizens if we did. But the Democratic economic policy does not bring prosperity, it does not encourage development. In my business since the new tariff law went into effect, there has been the importation of paper products equal to what 40 or 50 mills the size of the Lafayette mill could produce. The railroads are now working up to their capacity. The Pennsylvania has discontinued over 200 trains—this means that business isn't as good as it was. Instead of building up to a higher level we are building to a lower under the Democratic tariff law.

The Democratic theory is all wrong, and unless those who believe that it is set together, the Democratic party will have this country paralyzed by absolute free trade. Now, it would be poor judgment to divide and permit a minority to continue in power. That's what threatens this country at present. With Republicans divided the Democratic party, which stands for the minority sentiment of the country, will be kept in power. I want it understood that I am a Republican because I believe in protection and because there is only folly in the majority dividing its strength and fastening Democratic rule on the country."

FRIENDS HELP THEM CELEBRATE

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Schiot Observe Tenth Wedding Anniversary.

On Monday evening a party of friends met at the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Peter L. Schiot on Miller avenue, to celebrate the tenth anniversary of their marriage. A most enjoyable time was had by those present, music and games serving to pass the time pleasantly away. It was a long hour when the merry party left for their homes after wishing the host and hostess many happy returns of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Schiot were the recipients of many handsome and useful remembrances, consisting principally of the ware in accordance with the custom.

The Bride's Gift

Should be chosen with care and discrimination. My stock at present embraces an unusually large assortment of wonderfully attractive

PICTURES

Chief among which are many from the studio of Wallace Nutting. These are in all sizes and shapes suitable for framing and include his latest subjects. Nothing will prove a more welcome gift for the bride than one of these exquisite pictures. I am also showing for the first time in Portsmouth genuine imported artistically made up into Serving Trays and Mirrors. Your examination is invited.

Chinese Embroideries
